Dear Mrs. Fletcher:

President Falconer went to Halifax on Monday and will return about September 10th. I have inquired from the Bursar about the August cheque and he tells me that the President has not been at a Board meeting since Professor Fletcher's death and no recommendation has been made to enable him to forward it. There will be a meeting on September 14th and the President will be here in time for it and I know will arrange matters, for he spoke about it when here on Monday.

There has been no meeting of the Executive Committee of the Carnegie Foundation since your application was submitted. I think they meet once in three months. A letter came from the Secretary saying that he thought everything was regular and that on President Pritchett's return payments would be sent to the University, but up to the present nothing has come from them.

Just as soon as definite word comes from the Carnegie the President will let you know and you will hear from the Bursar after September 13th, though at the present moment it must look to you as if things were not being attended to.

Yours very truly,

Mrs. J. Fletcher,

Co Home.

President's Secretary.
